The Long Walk Societies
of Trinity College

The Long Walk Societies (LWS) were formed in 1992 to demonstrate the College's appreciation for leadership gifts to Trinity. The LWS bring together generations of donors and volunteers – veteran and emerging leaders – to support virtually every aspect of academic and student life. LWS members are civic-minded alumni and parents, engaged members of the community who give at the leadership level. They understand that their gifts are an investment in an exceptional liberal arts education and they choose to prioritize Trinity College in their philanthropy.

www.trincoll.edu/GivingToTrinity/Longwalksoc or (860) 297-4229.

The Elms Society was founded by the Board of Trustees to recognize those, who through their estate planning, have made an important commitment to the future of Trinity. Hundreds of Trinity alumni and friends have joined the society by notifying the College of their plans. Elms Society members ensure the continued availability of an outstanding Trinity education, thereby enriching the lives of future generations of men and women.
