Additional Information

Please register online beginning May 4, 2009.

at <http://junedays.trincoll.edu/>.

Deadline to register: June 10, 2009.

During group advising sessions, faculty will lead students through the course selection process. Although students should read the course information and the first-year seminar descriptions before arriving, they will complete the course selection form during the session. Faculty will also answer questions regarding graduation requirements, placement into advanced courses, major selection, the General Education requirements, and other academic issues.

No course assignments will be made until after June 17.

Students who do not attend June Days are not at a disadvantage.
