“Cultural Identity through the Arts in Urban Communities”

Washington Room, Mather Hall, Trinity College

Trinity College has worked with several diasporic groups that comprise the Greater Hartford community over the past few decades. This conference will pursue how academic institutions can develop new and innovative collaborative projects with diverse communities in urban settings. This conference will also focus on Connecticut's emerging Brazilian community.

This event is free and open to all and will help mark the one-year anniversary of the Center for Urban and Global Studies.
