Required Supplementary Essay Question:

Please write a one page essay in response to one of the following questions:

1. Trinity's Integrity Contract articulates our expectations of honesty, personal responsibility, active consideration of others, and respect for our community. What personal "integrity contract" do you employ in your own life? (To view Trinity's Integrity Contract, please visit www.trincoll.edu/StudentLife/DeanOfStudents/student_handbook.htm)
2. Trinity offers many opportunities for students to become personally engaged in Hartford. These opportunities include academic internships, courses that study the city, faculty and student research, community service projects, and volunteer work in local service organizations. How will your engagement in our diverse urban community make your education more meaningful and purposeful?
3. An important part of our institutional mission is to "free the mind from parochialism and prejudice." As a member of the Trinity community, how might you seek to contribute to the fulfillment of this endeavor?
