

Trinity College
Center for Urban and Global Studies
Hartford Research Seminar (2008-2010) Forum III

Center for Urban and Global Studies at Trinity College

“When History, Culture, and Place Meet: Race and Ethnicity in Greater Hartford”

Featuring:

“An Asian Diaspora: Diverse Responses to American Life”
Ellison Findly, Professor of Religion and International Studies,
Trinity College

Michael Lestz, Associate Professor of History, Trinity College

"From Florence to Park: A Research Agenda on Hartford's Puerto Rican History"

Luis Figueroa, Associate Professor of History, Trinity College
Fernando Betancourt, Executive Director,
Connecticut Latino and Puerto Rican Affairs Commission

"Hartford's West Indian Population: A Retrospective-Prospective Overview"

Edgar Johnson, Executive Director,
Center for Urban Research, Education & Training

“An Economic Perspective on Black Hartford's History and Future”

Diane Smith, Community and Program Development Officer, Connecticut Housing Finance Authority

Thursday, April 10, 2008

4:30 pm – 6:00 pm

Washington Room, Mather Hall (Campus Center)

A reception will follow the panel discussion at 6:15 p.m.

This is the third event of the Hartford Research Seminar for Spring 2009 sponsored by the Center for Urban and Global Studies at Trinity College. This event is also cosponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs at Trinity College. For more information about this event, please contact Luiselle Rivera at Luiselle.Rivera@trincoll.edu or at 860-297-5175.