Department of State
(DOS)
Insurance Requirements

According to J-1 regulation 22CFR62.14, all students, scholars, and their J-2 dependents are required to have health insurance that meets DOS requirements. These insurance requirements set forth by DOS are as follows:

1. Major medical benefits must be at least $50,000 for each accidental illness.
2. Repatriation benefit must be at least $7,500.
3. Medical evacuation must be covered for at least $10,000.
4. The deductible for each accident or illness may not exceed $500.
5. Policy may not be unreasonably exclude coverage for perils inherent to the activities of the exchange program.

If there are any questions regarding this checklist, you may contact the Office of International Students & Scholars.

Statement of Understanding and Compliance with the J Insurance Requirements
Effective September 1, 1994

I, __________________________    _______________________________ agree that I am/will be in compliance (print first name)                                          (print family name) with the insurance regulations as specified in 22 CFR section 62.14 of the Exchange regulations, and I understand that it is my responsibility to maintain my status and continue health insurance coverage for myself and J-2 dependents for the duration of my J-1 program.

I am/will be a:  _______ J-1 student                 _______ J-1 faculty/researcher/scholar      (check one only)

School:_________________________________________  Department:_________________________________________

_________________________________________    ___________________________
(Signature)                                     (Date)