What are the First Year Residence Halls on campus? Where are they located?
- Wheaton, Jackson, Smith, Funston: located on Summit Street on the South side of campus.
- Jones and Elton: Also on Summit next door to Mather Hall.
- North Campus Hall: Located on Vernon Street.
  Funston is a mixed class residence hall focused on Health and Wellness. If you are interested in living in Funston please contact Susan Salisbury at susan.salisbury@trincoll.edu.

When do residence halls open?
- First Year student will report to Koeppel Community Sports Center on September 3rd to check in. When the check-in process is complete, students will receive their Trinity ID and proceed to their residence hall to move-in. Students who are participating in a pre-orientation program will arrive prior to September 3rd depending on the program the student is participating in.

How do I access my residence hall?
- Students will access their halls, suite, bedroom, and bathroom using their ID.

I am arriving early, may I access my room?
- Only students who are participating in pre-orientation or in season athletes will be allowed to come to campus. Students will hear from their pre-orientation leaders and/or coach regarding access to their halls/rooms.

❖ When do I find out my room assignment:
  • Room assignments will be made available to incoming students in early August.

❖ What is a Resident Assistant (RA)? What purpose do they serve? How can I contact my Resident Assistant?
  • The Resident Assistants are an integral part of their residents’ transitions to college life, as they provide advice on social, Academic, and personal matters and keep an eye on their residents’ wellbeing. The RAs guide their residents through their first year at Trinity by making sure that the First Year students are fully aware of the opportunities, rules, procedures and traditions on campus.

❖ Are there other student leaders at Trinity that live in the First Year residence halls?
  • Yes, P.R.I.D.E. Leaders, a group of dedicated and talented students who are trained to work with the incoming first year class through the year. They live in the FY halls and offer advice and support. They plan events and programs that are meant to bridge social gaps and bring students together and help them learn about and discuss varying issues in our society. They often will collaborate with the RAs in regard to programming within the halls.

❖ Are pets allowed?
  • No, pet are not allowed in any residence halls.

❖ If I have an issue with my roommate, what do I do?
  • We encourage students to have a one on one conversation with their roommate regarding any misunderstanding. If this does not resolve the issue, the RAs are available to assist with mediation. Please be advised that it is rare that a student is relocated due to a roommate issue.

❖ I have a friend that I want to room with, how do I about selecting them as my roommate?
  • Students may request a roommate but it is unlikely that the request can be accommodated. Students are assigned based on their First Year Seminar. If the students who wish to live together are not in seminars assigned to the same residential cluster, the request cannot be accommodated. Students who wish to make a request will email Susan Salisbury at Susan.salisbury@trincoll.edu.

❖ Does housing cost the same regardless of type of room accommodation?
  • All housing fees are the same regardless if a student lives in a single, double, triple, quad, etc. (with the exception of the Crescent Street Townhouses).

❖ May I have a car on campus?
  • First Year students may not have a car on campus. Unregistered cars will be ticketed and towed. If a FY student has extenuating circumstances, contact Campus Safety at 860-297-2222. Campus Safety oversees all parking lots and car registrations.
