New Hire

I am pleased to announce that Trinity College has hired Samuel Schwartz as our new Campus Safety Officer. Samuel will begin his new assignment on Monday June 1, 2015 and will be assigned to the third shift.

Samuel joins the Campus Safety Department with a diverse background in public safety having served as a volunteer firefighter and a member of the Civil Air Patrol.

Samuel received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from Springfield College in 2013 and is currently working towards his Masters of Science degree from the University of Cincinnati.

Samuel was previously employed as a Security Officer for the Amherst College Museums in Amherst, Massachusetts

Please join me in welcoming our new Officer. I look forward to the positive contributions he will make to our department.

Sincerely,

FRANCISCO ORTIZ JR.
Director of Campus Safety

The mission of the Campus Safety Department is to promote and provide a safe, secure environment where members of the Trinity community live, study, and work. They strive to provide effective safety services, prevent crime, and foster an environment in which members of the College community practice personal safety.
