Events Sponsored or Co-sponsored by the Center for Caribbean Studies, 2016-17
Trinity College, Hartford CT

The State and Hinduism in the Indian Diaspora in Trinidad
Lecture by Elizabeth Valenzuela ‘17
April 27, Mather Hall, Wean Terrace, Room C, 4:15 P.M.

From the Archive: Immigration Stories from Greater Hartford’s West Indian Community
Lecture by Fiona Vernal, Associate Professor of History, University of Connecticut
March 27, Alumni Lounge, 4:30 P.M.

Hartford’s Black Mothers Raising Bridges Over Troubled Waters
Lecture by Channon Miller ’11, PhD Candidate, Boston University
March 9, Terrace Room C, Mather Hall, 4:30 P.M.

Casa tomada: Repression and Reconciliation with the Diaspora in Cuba’s Cultural Imaginary
Lecture by Vicky Unruh, Professor of Hispanic Literature, University of Kansas.
February 27, Rittenberg Lounge, Mather Hall, 4:30 P.M.

Inaugural Celebrations, Center for Caribbean Studies

Event held in coordination with the annual conference of NECLAS; New England Council of Latin American Studies, hosted at Trinity for 2016.

Dinner and reception with music by Trinity Steel and Trinity Samba Ensemble
November 10, Mather Hall, 6:30 P.M.
Remarks by:
Leslie Desmangles, Inaugural Director
Timothy Cresswell, Dean of the Faculty and Vice President of Academic Affairs,
Invited international guests:
Dr. Heather Cateau, Dean of Humanities and Education, University of the West Indies, St. Augustine
Dr. Rodolfo Pastor Fasquelle, historian and former Minister of Culture, Republic of Honduras.
Thomas J. “TJ” Clarke, President, Hartford City Council

From Colonial Trinidad to Insurgent Cuba: A Caribbean World in Transnational and Global Perspectives
Lecture by Armando García de la Torre, University of the West Indies, St. Augustine
Alumni Lounge, 12:15 P.M.

Selections from the Edith A. Graham Collection of Haitian Art at Trinity College
Selection of Caribbean Historical Material from the Watkinson Library
Exhibition at Mather Art Space, reception 5:30 P.M.
Marking Territory and Techniques of Gender in the Unincorporated Territory of Puerto Rico
Lecture by Adriana Garriga-López, Associate Professor of Anthropology, Kalamazoo College
Dangremond Commons, 4:30 P.M.