How is science used for the greater good?
How does science contribute to society?
How are Trinity alumni leaders in this realm?
These lectures aim to answer these questions.

All lectures will be held in the Washington Room, Mather Hall common hour, 12:15-1:15 p.m.

one:
THURSDAY,
SEPTEMBER 11, 2014
Jane Bearinger ’90, Ph.D.
Founder, Corporos Inc.

two:
THURSDAY,
OCTOBER 9, 2014
Nancy Davis ’79
Vice President and Chief Information Officer, United Technologies Corporation

three:
THURSDAY,
NOVEMBER 13, 2014
Andrew Stewart ’70, M.D.
Director, Diabetes, Obesity and Metabolism Institute,
Mount Sinai School of Medicine

four:
THURSDAY,
FEBRUARY 12, 2015
Timothy Cross ’76, Ph.D.
Earl Frieden Professor of Chemistry,
Florida State University

Sponsored by the Science Center, Advancement, and Career Development Center.
For more information, go to www.trincoll.edu/Academics/centers/interdisciplinary/Pages/default.aspx.