Publications:

Conference Papers/Presentations:

Karen L. Humphreys, presented/introduced the film "Brodeuses [Sequins],” Women in Film Festival, Saint Joseph’s College, Hartford, October 29, 2007.

Dianne Hunter, “The Dead Mother Complex,” Plath 75th Year Symposium, Oxford University, October 2007.

Vijay Prashad, “The Third World As Project, the Global South as Struggle,” Graduate Student and Faculty Seminar, Fordham University, March 27, 2008.

Vijay Prashad, “Keynote Address,” Culture Shock Festival, Quebec Public Interest Research Group, McGill University, Montreal, October 9, 2007.

Gary Reger, “Reconfiguring the Political Geography of Karia,” Die hellenistische Polis als Lebensform. Zentralisationsprozesse in der hellenistischen Poliswelt, the Kommission für Alte Geschichte und Epigraphik, Munich, Germany, October 25, 2007.

Mark Setterfield, “Macroeconomics without the LM curve: an alternative view,” University of Massachusetts, Amherst, October 2007.

Performances/Exhibits:

The Judy Dworin Performance Project, Time In, was performed at Arts in Criminal Justice Conference, Philadelphia, October 2007 and at Wesleyan University, November 2007.

Grants/Fellowships:

J. Harry Blaise, CT NASA Space Grant Consortium Faculty Research Grant, $6,000, November 1, 2007-October 31, 2008.

David Branning, CT NASA Space Grant Consortium Faculty Research Grant, $6,000, June 1, 2008-May 31, 2009.

Sean Cocco, Dibner Research Fellow in the History of Science and Technology, Huntington Library, $7,500, spring 2009.

Judy Dworin, Edward C. and Ann T. Roberts Foundation, $3,000, and Ensworth Charitable Trust, $3,000, for The Witching Hour.

Judy Dworin, Hartford Courant Foundation, $10,000, for Judy Dworin Performance Project Moving Matters! Residency Program.

Heidi J. C. Ellis, Principal Investigator, with Gregory W. Hislop, Drexel University, Co-PI, National Science Foundation, “SoftHum: Student Participation in the Community of Open Source Software for Humanity,” Course, Curriculum, and Laboratory Improvement grant, $149,000 (Trinity: $101,000), February 2008–January 2011.

Lucy Ferriss, partial fellowship for Vermont Studio Center Residency, November 2007.

Beth E. Notar, National Endowment for the Humanities summer stipend, $6,000, summer 2008.

Susan D. Pennybacker, Shelby Cullom Davis Center for Historical Studies Fellowship, Princeton University, fall 2008.
Susan D. Pennybacker, Visiting Fellowship, Centre for Research in the Arts, Social Sciences and the Humanities, University of Cambridge, $4,000 plus facilities, Michaelmas Term, 2008 (declined).

Honors & Awards:

Jennifer L. Bowman was inducted into the Salisbury University (Maryland) Athletics Hall of Fame on October 21, 2007.

The Judy Dworin Project’s, The Witching Hour, received an Award of Merit from the Connecticut League of History Organizations, January 29, 2008.

Joan D. Hedrick received a Connecticut Governor’s Award for Excellence in Culture and Tourism.

Randolph M. Lee, received the Catherine Acuff Award for “Outstanding Contribution to the Profession of Psychology,” at the Connecticut Psychological Association Annual Convention, November 9, 2007.

Other Professional Accomplishments:

Luis A. Figueroa, external reviewer, project to consolidate the Hispanic Studies and Latin American Studies programs, Mt. Holyoke College, Spring 2008.

Stephanie Gilmore has been appointed to the editorial board of Feminist Studies.

Cheryl L. Greenberg is a visiting professor/Docent at the University of Helsinki, spring 2008.

Cheryl L. Greenberg’s book, Troubling the Waters: Black-Jewish Relations in the American Century, was the subject of a panel at the Association for the Study of African American Life and History Annual Conference, October 4, 2007.

Jean-Marc Kehrès was elected to the executive board of the East-Central American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies.

Barry A. Kosmin has been named a board member for the Canadian Journal of Social Research.

Clare M. Rossini was the featured poet on PoetryNet’s Poet of the Month site, Mark Jarman and John Canaday, ed. December, 2007.

Erik Vogt, Radiobroadcast on Austrian Public Radio of interview on Slavoj Zizek.