

Trinity College Health Insurance Grant Application for Financial Aid Recipients

Financial Aid Office
300 Summit Street
Hartford, CT 06106

Health Insurance while attending Trinity College is mandatory. All full-time matriculated undergraduate Trinity College students are required to maintain health insurance.

If you do not have access to any health insurance coverage from home and you receive financial aid, you may request a grant to cover the cost of the Trinity SHIP. A limited amount of grant funding is available for students with extremely high need. To apply for consideration of a grant, complete and submit this application to the Financial Aid Office by August 1. Applications for grant consideration received after August 1st will only be approved on a funds available basis.

US CITIZENS and ELIGIBLE NON-CITIZENS: If you are already covered by a family plan or another policy that provides coverage in the Hartford, CT area, you must maintain home insurance coverage or voluntarily purchase the Trinity SHIP without grant assistance. Trinity grants are not available to provide double insurance coverage in conjunction with a commercial plan with a high deductible or coinsurance amounts.
