

It's Time for Students to Review Their Final Spring 2019 Schedules

The Office of the Registrar announces that all Spring 2019 course override and special registration forms have been processed.

You MUST REVIEW your final schedule to verify that it accurately reflects all changes you made to your academic schedule during the add/drop period.

A HOLD has been put in place that requires you to review your schedule before you can access Moodle or TCOonline.

YOU WILL BE UNABLE TO ACCESS MOODLE OR TCONLINE UNTIL YOU HAVE REVIEWED YOUR FINAL SCHEDULE.

Please follow these steps:

1. Log onto TCOonline. Your final schedule will appear. Please review it carefully and make note of any discrepancies.
Please note – it is possible that classes you are registered for will not show up on Moodle. Be sure you check the accuracy of your schedule on TCOonline.
2. After you have finished reviewing your schedule, click on the RELEASE HOLD button. Access to Moodle and TCOonline now resumes.
3. Please immediately bring any discrepancies you find on your schedule to our attention, so that we can investigate. We are located at Trinity Commons, and are open 8:30am – 4:30pm, Monday – Friday. You may also call us at ext. 2118.
