FACES Spotlight: PRAXIS

PRAXIS is a residence-based community service program established by and for students with the purpose of creating an environment that actively promotes and engages students in community involvement and building within the resident hall, on campus, and with the Hartford community. Students are housed together in Doonesbury and are expected to do at least 3 hours of community service each week. Applications for the 2015-2016 academic year are being accepted, click here to apply.
