How Eligibility is Determined:

Eligibility for federal student aid is based on financial need and several other factors. Congress created a federal needs analysis methodology known as FM which is used to calculate eligibility for federal student aid. Many state agencies also use FM to determine eligibility for need-based state grant eligibility. Students should contact their state's department of education for additional information on state grant eligibility. More information regarding federal student aid eligibility can be found at the following website:

<https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/eligibility>

Eligibility for need-based institutional aid is calculated using an institutional needs analysis methodology known as IM and is modified by College policy. Students can utilize Trinity's Net Price Calculator to help estimate their family contribution and determine the amount of need-based aid for which they may be eligible. The calculator provides an estimate of eligibility only; the College's Financial Aid Office is the final authority on calculating need and determining aid eligibility. The Net Price Calculator can be found at the following website:

<https://trincoll.studentaidcalculator.com/survey.aspx>

Impact of conviction for possession or sale of illegal drugs on aid eligibility

A federal or state drug conviction can disqualify a student for Federal Student Aid funds including grants, loans or work assistance. Convictions only count if they were for an offense that occurred during a period of enrollment for which the student was receiving federal aid.

For purposes of this section, a conviction that was reversed, set aside, or removed from the student's record does not count, nor is a determination or adjudication arising out of a juvenile proceeding.

For purposes of this section, an illegal drug is a controlled substance as defined by section 102(6) of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 801(6)), and does not include alcohol or tobacco.

The chart below illustrates the period of ineligibility for FSA funds, depending on whether the conviction was for sale or possession and whether the student had previous offenses. (A conviction for sale of drugs includes convictions for conspiring to sell drugs.)

	Possession of Illegal Drugs	Sale of Illegal Drugs
First offense	1 year from date of conviction	2 years from date of conviction
Second offense	2 years from date of conviction	Indefinite period
Three or more offenses	Indefinite period

If a student is convicted of both possessing and selling illegal drugs, and the periods of ineligibility are different, the student will be ineligible for the longer period.

A student regains eligibility the day after the period of ineligibility ends or when he or she successfully completes a qualified drug rehabilitation program or passes two unannounced drug tests given by such a program. Further drug convictions will make the student ineligible again.

Students denied eligibility for an indefinite period can regain it after successfully completing a rehabilitation program (as described below), passing two unannounced drug tests from such a program, or if a conviction is reversed, set aside, or removed from the student’s record so that fewer than two convictions for sale or three convictions for possession remain on the record.

It is the student’s responsibility to certify to Trinity College that he or she has successfully completed the rehabilitation program. A qualified drug rehabilitation program must include at least two unannounced drug tests and must satisfy at least one of the following requirements:

- Be qualified to receive funds directly or indirectly from a federal, state or local government program.
- Be qualified to receive payment directly or indirectly from a federally or state-licensed insurance company.
- Be administered or recognized by a federal, state or local government agency or court.
- Be administered or recognized by a federally or state-licensed hospital, health clinic or medical doctor.

Rights and Responsibilities of Students Receiving Financial Aid:

Students have the right to expect that 1) all financial aid records will be maintained in a confidential manner and 2) information regarding the application process, eligibility criteria and disbursement procedures will be provided upon request.

Students have the following responsibilities: 1) complete and submit all financial aid applications in a timely, thorough, and accurate manner; 2) provide the Financial Aid Office with all requested documentation; 3) to read, understand, and retain copies of all forms that are distributed; 4) to apply or reapply for any federal and state grants for which they may be eligible; and 5) to report to the Financial Aid Office all grants and scholarship awards received each year.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP):

Students are required to maintain good academic standing and meet satisfactory academic progress requirements according to College policy to remain eligible for federal and institutional financial aid.

A written copy of the College's SAP policy can be requested from the Financial Aid Office or can be accessed online at the following website:

<http://www.trincoll.edu/Admissions/finaid/Pages/Policies.aspx>

The College's Student Handbook listing good academic standing requirements can be accessed online at:

<http://www.trincoll.edu/Pages/CurrentStudents.aspx>

Refunds and Return of Federal Title IV Funds:

All students who withdraw from the College prior to the last day of a term should contact the Office of Student Accounts and Loans to discuss the amount of the administrative charge that will be assessed and review the College's Refund policy. Students receiving financial aid should contact the Financial Aid Office to discuss the details of federal, state and institutional refund policies on their aid award. The College adheres to the federally mandated refund calculation for federal financial aid, and employs a separate institutional refund calculation for College funds. Details and copies of withdrawal examples are available in the Financial Aid Office. Additional information regarding Trinity's Refund policy can be found at the following website:

<http://www.trincoll.edu/Admissions/finaid/SA/policies/Pages/default.aspx>
