

December 9th, 2020

Dear Gentlemen of the Class of 1967:

What a year!! Since our last E-letter of July 8th, 2020, most all of us likely have continued to be inconvenienced personally and impacted economically by the coronavirus as well as uncertainties from our still contested elections. Nevertheless, throughout the Fall, you should have received numerous communications from the College with details about how it has been operating successfully during the Fall Semester. Your Class of 1967 Leadership Team has continued to meet virtually, looking ahead toward our 55th reunion in 2022; here are some updates that you should find of interest.

We are glad to know that Dhiraj Ananad Ganji '23 continues to be our Class of 1967 Scholarship Fund recipient this academic year. Dhiraj completed his studies in the Interdisciplinary Science Program (ISP) during his freshman year, and we are pleased to report that he was able to return to Trinity for the Fall semester, studying physics, calculus, computer science, and Japanese. If you would like to introduce yourself to Dhiraj, please communicate with him at dhiraj.ganji@trincoll.edu.

We are working closely with the College to see how the Classes of 1965 and 1966 are planning to celebrate their respective 55th reunions next June. We want the College to provide us with any contingency plans that may need to be evaluated to enable us to have a successful 55th reunion in 2022, the dates for which are yet to be announced.

Our new Class Page (see the link inserted below) has been developed and designed exclusively for the Class of 1967; you should appreciate that our Class Page provides a link to access a College directory and classmates by logging into My Trin Net. Please verify your personal information and upload a photo of yourself on your listing. In addition, our Class Page has a class photo gallery, access to Class Notes published in the Trinity Reporter, and many other useful features to keep connected to classmates, alumni/ae, and the College.

As we introduce and refine the Class Page, please continue to send your Class Notes for the Trinity Reporter to our Class Secretary, Jim O'Connor (oconnor.jim111@gmail.com).

The Class of 1967 Leadership Team again encourages you to submit the name(s) of classmates whom you think would be deserving of our TRIN-MAN Award at our 55th Reunion. The Award will recognize and honor a classmate for his “significant and meaningful service in one or more of the following areas: Trinity college and higher education in general, or to his local community, state, or nation.” Rob Boas (rboas@bellsouth.net) is coordinating the TRIN-MAN Award effort; please send him your recommendation(s).

Finally, as we approach the end of 2020, we want to thank the members of the Class of 1967 for your ongoing generosity to annual giving, the Class of 1967 Scholarship Fund, and those who are members of The Elms Society. We are especially pleased with the growth of the Class of 1967 Scholarship Fund. Our Scholarship Fund had a market value of $843,375.89 as of June 30, 2020; it provided more than $22,000 in financial aid to our scholarship recipient last academic year. The 55th Reunion Leadership Team extends its best wishes during this holiday season for your good health, personal safety, and financial well-being; please let us have any recommendations or suggestions to consider for our 55th Reunion.
