

Ann Newman Selvitelli '91

A native of Suffield, CT, Ann enjoys living in her hometown while embracing boarding school life as an administrator at Suffield Academy. She graduated from Suffield High School and went on to earn a B.A. in Political Science from Trinity College and a MS.Ed in Psychological Services from the University of Pennsylvania. Prior to working at Suffield, Ann served as associate director of admissions at The Loomis Chaffee School, dean of students at Dana Hall School and as an associate director of undergraduate admission at Babson College. Ann joined the Academy staff in 2004 and has led the college counseling office as well as served as a dorm parent, class advisor, coach and faculty advisor. In 2018, she also became chair of the Leadership Department. Ann lives adjacent to campus with her husband, Dave, their three children, and her mother. In addition to her work with the Trinity College Women's Leadership Council, Ann also enjoys volunteering at the First Church of Christ, Suffield.