

Alice Vautour '01

Alice currently serves as Director, Environmental & Governance, leading ESG initiatives at Alkegen, a specialty materials company. Prior to Alkegen, Alice had a number of roles in healthcare litigation, regulatory and compliance, and consulting and risk management. Alice was an attorney in private practice with StotlerHayes, LLC, a Partner with the firm of DanaherLagnese, LLC, and was Vice President of the Product Development and Legal Departments of MRM Group, LLC, a national risk management and consulting company. Alice has a B.A. degree in Economics from Trinity College in Connecticut and received her J.D. from Suffolk University Law School.