

Trinity College Center for Caribbean Studies Grants Awarded 2017-2018

Research Grants:

Eric Galm, Music Department, “Exploring Two Contrasting Musical Groups Founded upon the Songs and Rhythms of the Afro-Brazilian Congado Mineiro developed in Minas Gerais, Brazil.”

Janet Bauer, International Studies and Naima Mohammed, Independent Researcher, Trinidad & Tobago, “Islam in Our Midst—a Website on Trinbagonian and Caribbean Islam.”

Tom Harrington, Language and Cultural Studies, “The History of Catalan migration to the Americas: the Cuban Case.”

Donna Dale-Marcano, Philosophy Department, “Merikins of Trinidad: Finding Home: Making an Identity.”

Teaching Grants:

Yisbell Marrero, '20, “Sociocultural Aspects of Haitian Migration to the Dominican Republic.”

Joe Chambers, Public Policy, “Environmental Sustainability in the Caribbean: Trinidad & Tobago as a Case Study.”

Kyle Fields '21 and Jerry Rodriguez '20 & Christina Boyles, Digital Scholarship Coordinator Trinity College, “Remembering Hurricanes Maria and Felipe in Puerto Rico.”