Aadiv Sheth '22 | Faculty Advisor: Prof. Peter Yoon
Department of Computer Science, Trinity College

Overview

- Fosters intellectual connections, relationships, and collaborations
- Single platform to post about partnerships, research, jobs, etc.
- Allows information to reach the community and target audience directly

Motivation

- Struggle to find a partner for the Senior Project
- No unified platform for finding and reaching students for specific common interests
- Wanted to make an app that united the campus community
