

In Memory

1950 Gordon C. Gilroy, 101, of Bedford, New Hampshire, died on January 27, 2026.

Gilroy served in the U.S. Navy before earning an interdisciplinary B.A. from Trinity, where he was a member of Sigma Nu. He went on to a career in sales and spent two decades at Precision Valve before purchasing his own company, which became actuator and aerosol firm Summit Packaging Systems.

Gilroy is survived by son Scott Gilroy, nine grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his wife of 65 years, Elisabeth "Liz," and children Gordon "Chip" Gilroy and Elisabeth "Betsy" Van Duren.

1950 Raymond C. Snow Jr., 98, of Farmington, Connecticut, died on October 25, 2025.

Snow served in the U.S. Army Air Corps before earning an interdisciplinary B.A. from Trinity, where he was a member of Sigma Nu. He began his career with a subsidiary of Aetna Insurance and later worked in manufacturing sales and marketing management.

Snow is survived by wife Nellie, son-in-law Priya Jamidar, and two grandchildren. He was predeceased by children Jonathan Snow and Melissa Snow.

1952 Ira M. "Manning" Parsons III, 95, of Westwood, Massachusetts, died on December 1, 2025.

Parsons earned an interdisciplinary B.A. from Trinity, where he was a member of Psi Upsilon, the Glee Club, and the staff of The Trinity Tripod. After serving in the U.S. Naval Reserve, he succeeded his father as owner and manager of the Parsons Company and T.W. Mather and Sons department stores.

Parsons is survived by children Isabelle Loring '87 (Ian

'88), Caroline Moore (Michael), and Moby Parsons (Yasmine); eight grandchildren; stepchildren Thomas (Janet), Kate (Steven), and Alex (Hillary); eight step-grandchildren; sister Polly Nelson; and first wife Elizabeth von Kessler. He was predeceased by wife Cynthia.

1953 Edgar R. Kunz Jr., 97, of Newtown Square, Pennsylvania, died on January 4, 2026.

Kunz attended Trinity before earning a D.D.S. from the University of Pennsylvania School of Dental Medicine and working as an endodontist. He also served in the U.S. Army.

Kunz is survived by wife Marilyn, sons Brian Kunz (Corinne) and David Kunz (Colleen), six grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

1953 David M. Longobucco, 96, of North Branford, Connecticut, died on January 18, 2026.

Longobucco earned a B.A. in history from Trinity after transferring from the University of Connecticut as a junior. He went on to earn an M.A. in history and political science from Columbia University. After serving in the U.S. Army during the Korean War, Longobucco worked briefly for Dun and Bradstreet before launching a 30-year career in the accounting department of Chesebrough-Pond's, from which he retired in 1988.

Longobucco is survived by his wife of 72 years, Elizabeth; children Randall, Adrienne Andrews (Geoffrey), and Arden Bradley (A. James); three grandchildren; and sister Rita Samber.

1954 Roger J. Harmon, 93, of Ahwahnee, California, died on November 26, 2025.

Harmon graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Trinity with a B.A.

in English and classics. He also was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha and the Debate Club. Harmon had a career in education, teaching English, drama, and ESL, as well as two tours as an English teacher on missions in Africa. He later earned a degree in programming. Harmon retired from Cypress Junior College in 1992.

Harmon is survived by five children, 16 grandchildren, and 18 great-grandchildren.

1954 Michael W. MacKedon, 93, of Milwaukee, died on October 18, 2025.

MacKedon attended Trinity, where he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon, before transferring to Marquette University, where he earned a B.B.A. and later an M.B.A. He served in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers before launching a career in the insurance industry.

MacKedon is survived by children Margaret "Muffie" Browne (Peter) and Thomas MacKedon and five grandchildren. He was predeceased by wife Mitzi.

1954 David N. Seufert, 93, of Cambridge, New York, died on January 2, 2026.

Seufert earned a B.A. from Trinity, where he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha. After serving in the U.S. Army during the Korean War, he worked for Equitable Life Insurance for three decades.

Seufert is survived by his wife of 62 years, Catherine; sons Daniel Seufert (Laurie) and Marshal Seufert (Lis); and five grandchildren. He was predeceased by sister Virginia Ann.

1954 Robert P. Van Brott, 94, of Delray Beach, Florida, died on October 2, 2025.

Van Brott served in the U.S. Air Force before earning a B.A.

in studio arts and history from Trinity, where he was vice president of Alpha Delta Phi. He spent much of his career as an advertising executive in Philadelphia, retiring from Mueller & Wister.

Van Brott is survived by his wife of 65 years, Natalie; children Ken Van Brott, Parke Van Brott (Julie), and Andrea Adkins (Dan); six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and sister Julie Harris.

1955 Charles F. Leonard, 92, of Madison, Alabama, died on December 10, 2025.

Leonard earned a B.A. in psychology from Trinity, where he was a member of Sigma Nu and took part in ROTC. He went on to serve in the U.S. Air Force before working as a pilot for Eastern Airlines for 24 years and then serving as an aircraft accident investigator for the National Transportation Safety Board.

Leonard is survived by his wife of 54 years, LoAnn; children Christine Teeden (Jack), Cathleen Jamison, Kevin Leonard (Elizabeth), Ryan Leonard (Tong), and Mandy Leonard-Hart; 11 grandchildren; and 15 great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by daughter Cynthia Bodden, son-in-law Joshua Jamison, and brother John Leonard.

1956 Eugene J. Gallagher, 91, of East Longmeadow, Massachusetts, died on January 27, 2026.

Gallagher earned a B.A. in economics from Trinity, where he was a member of the Newman Club and played baseball. He went on to a career in banking.

Gallagher is survived by his wife of 64 years, Patricia; children James Gallagher

In Memory

(Donna), Mary Guinan (John), Joe Gallagher (Carol), Patricia Gallagher, and Katherine Mlodzinski (Greg); 10 grandchildren; one great-grandson; and sister Kathleen Griffin. He was predeceased by a grandson and siblings John Gallagher and Dorothy Lowery.

1956 Robert M. Hammaker, 91, of Manhattan, Kansas, died on January 1, 2026.

Hammaker graduated Phi Beta Kappa with a B.S. in chemistry. He was a member of Phi Kappa Psi and the Chemistry Club. Hammaker went on to earn a Ph.D. in chemistry from Northwestern University before working briefly for Texaco Research Center and then joining the faculty of the Chemistry Department at Kansas State University, where he remained for the rest of his academic career.

Hammaker is survived by children Lucy and Barry (Maria), three grandchildren, and brother John Hammaker. He was predeceased by brother David Hammaker.

1956 Philip O. Ritter, 91, of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, died on December 31, 2025.

Ritter earned a B.S. in physics from Trinity, where he was a member of Alpha Theta and the Canterbury Club and served as manager of the soccer, swimming, and track teams. He went on to a 35-year career with General Electric Co. Aerospace Division as an engineer, test director, and program manager.

Ritter is survived by children Susan DeNunzio (Tony) and John Ritter and three granddaughters. He was predeceased by his wife of 59 years, Barbara.

1957 Henry D. "Davey" Hamilton, 90, of Darien, Connecticut, died on November 4, 2025.

Hamilton earned a B.A. in English from Trinity, where he was a member of Delta Psi and the Glee Club and played squash and tennis. He went on to study at NYU and to a career with J.P. Morgan, specializing in investment management.

Hamilton is survived by wife Lucy and son Henry W. Hamilton '89. He was predeceased by earlier wife Merrie and siblings Jane Warriner and Peter.

1957 Hugh D. McCracken Jr., 89, of Montgomery, Alabama, died on August 19, 2025.

McCracken earned a B.S. in mathematics from Trinity, where he was a member of Sigma Nu and the Newman Club and took part in Air Force ROTC. He went on to serve as a career officer in the U.S. Air Force during the Vietnam War and the Cold War. After McCracken's 1983 retirement from the military, he earned a master's in education and worked at Troy University as alumni affairs director and later as a mathematics instructor.

McCracken is survived by his wife of 63 years, Connie; children Linda Dungee (Jerry), Nancy Evans (David), Christopher McCracken (Stephannie), and Jonathan McCracken (Aida); eight grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

1958 Ward M. Edgerton, 89, of Manchester, Connecticut, died on December 27, 2025.

Edgerton earned a B.S. in educational studies from Trinity, where he was a member of the Brownell Club and the Engineering Club. He went on to earn an M.S. in computer science from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Hartford. Edgerton worked for 35 years for United Technologies Research Center.

Edgerton is survived by his wife of 67 years, Harriet; sons David Edgerton (Laurie) and Alan Edgerton (Craig Long); two grandsons; three great-grandchildren; and sister-in-law Carolyn Haley.

1958 Edgar W. "Bill" Lorson, 88, of Jacksonville Beach, Florida, died on January 24, 2026.

Lorson earned a B.S. in engineering from Trinity, where he served as president of Delta Kappa Epsilon and played football, basketball, and lacrosse. He went on to earn an M.S. in rocket propulsion from the Air Force Institute of Technology. Lorson served for 21 years in the U.S. Air Force before continuing his engineering career with Copeland Corporation and later Teledyne Brown Engineering.

Lorson is survived by his wife of 57 years, Joann; children Kristi Leonard and William Lorson; son-in-law Paul Leonard; and three grandchildren.

1959 George A. Anderson, 88, of Coventry, Connecticut, died on October 21, 2025.

Anderson graduated Phi Beta Kappa with a B.S. in mathematics and physics. He also was a member of the Brownell Club. Anderson went on to earn a Ph.D. in mathematical statistics from Yale University. He taught at Trinity for several years before joining the faculty of Rhode Island College, where he served from 1971 to 1999.

Anderson is survived by his wife of 60 years, Ruth; children John Anderson '90 (Julie), Jennifer Reid (Oliver), and Sarah Wilander (Mike); eight grandchildren; sister-in-law Jane Burr; and brother-in-law Ronald Gocht. He was predeceased by twin sister Nancy Gocht and brother-in-law Gary Burr.

1959 Robert D. Coykendall, 88, of East Hartford, Connecticut, died on November 13, 2025.

Coykendall graduated Phi Beta Kappa with a B.S. in physics from Trinity, where he was a member of the Brownell Club and the Senate. He went on to a career as an engineer with United Technologies. The dedicated alumnus served as a class president and class agent and on numerous committees; he was honored by Trinity in 1999 with the Alumni Medal for Excellence.

Coykendall is survived by twin brother Alan (Betty).

1959 William C. Johnson Jr., 89, of Keswick, Virginia, died on February 1, 2026.

Johnson earned a B.A. in history from Trinity, where he was a member of Alpha Delta Phi, the Senate, and the football, swimming, and track teams. After serving in the U.S. Army, he worked in sales for Pfizer and Procter & Gamble. He later ran his own marketing firm and sold real estate.

Johnson is survived by daughters Catherine Ellis (Christopher), Marnie Johnson, and Melanie Johnson and two grandchildren. He was predeceased by his wife of 64 years, Marybess "Pooh."

1960 W. Richard "Dick" Davy, 88, of Portland, Maine, died on January 17, 2026.

Davy earned a B.A. in economics from Trinity, where he was a member of Delta Psi. He went on to a career in sales, marketing, and new business development, including many years as sales and marketing manager with Aircraft.

Davy is survived by his wife of 34 years, Liz; children Ashley Donayre (Jay), Jennifer Davy, and Richard Davy (Beatriz); three grandchildren; stepchildren Jeane Baltzersen, John Baltzersen (Michelle), and Paul; one step-granddaughter; sisters Elizabeth Jane Davy and Margaret Davy; and the mother of his children, Linda Fallon.

1960 William C. "Croft" Jennings Jr., 88, of Lynchburg, Virginia, died on January 20, 2026.

Jennings earned a B.A. in English from Trinity, where he was a member of Psi Upsilon and the soccer and squash teams, serving as captain of the latter. He went on to earn a law degree from the University of Virginia. After working in law, Jennings pivoted to a career in design-build and real estate development.

Jennings is survived by children Tom Jennings (Carter), Courtney Jennings '90 (Ken Badois), and Gwendolyn Chestnut (Bobby); eight grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by wife Ann and sister Anne Koenig.

1961 James A. "Tony" Hoyt, 87, of Fountain Valley, California, died on December 9, 2025.

Hoyt earned a B.A. in history from Trinity, where he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon. He and his father and brother owned and operated Davis and Hoyt Insurance and Real Estate.

Hoyt is survived by children Cara O'Connell (Mike) and Charley Hoyt (Patricia); stepchildren Sid Barteau (Ann), Susie Cammett (Chris), and Julie Gemmell (Jeffery); 13 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; and sister-in-law Janet Hoyt. He was predeceased by wife Frances "Franny," former wife and mother of his children Margaret, and brother Harry "Pete" Hoyt Jr.

1961 Francis S. Perotti Jr., 86, of Holyoke, Massachusetts, died on November 3, 2025.

Perotti earned a B.A. in economics from Trinity, where he served as president of the Brownell Club. He owned and operated R.E.P. Services.

Perotti is survived by children Mark Perotti (Laurie) and Kelly-Anne Perotti and two grandsons. He was predeceased by his wife of 62 years, Roberta.

1961 Samuel Wagner, 85, of Chester County, Pennsylvania, died on June 15, 2024.

Wagner earned a B.A. in economics from Trinity, where he was a member of Alpha Chi Rho, the Senate, and the staff of The Trinity Tripod. After managing his family's Deborah's Rock Farm, he earned an M.A. from Temple University and a Ph.D. from the University of Pennsylvania, both in economics. He was a faculty member at Franklin and Marshall College, from which he retired as the Clair R. McCullough Chair of the Business Administration and Economics Department.

Wagner is survived by his wife of 62 years, Mary Ann; sons Samuel V, Thomas, and Michael; daughters-in-law Kristin and Carrissa; and seven grandchildren.

1961 Edward W. Waldeck, 85, of Wind Point, Wisconsin, died on October 3, 2024.

Waldeck earned a B.A. in history from Trinity, where he was a member of Alpha Delta Phi. He went on to earn an M.D. from Marquette University and to a career as an ophthalmologist. He also served in the U.S. Air Force.

1961 Robert L. Woodward Jr., 85, of Bend, Oregon, died on March 7, 2025.

Woodward earned a B.A. in history from Trinity, where he was a member of Delta Psi, the Senate, the Canterbury Club, and the track team and worked at WRTC. He went on to a career as a journalist, writing about skiing for multiple media outlets and covering five Winter Olympics. Woodward also wrote for The Source, a digital paper covering Bend. The former mayor of Bend also authored two books on cross-country conditioning and technique.

Woodward is survived by wife Eileen.

1962 Peter J. Meehan, 84, of Chapel Hill, North Carolina, died on November 12, 2025.

Meehan earned a B.A. in economics from Trinity, where he played lacrosse and served as president of Sigma Nu. He went on to earn an M.B.A. from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College. Meehan worked for Corning, Pittsburgh Corning, and The Insilco Corporation before founding the Greenwood Group. The loyal alumnus served as a class agent and on several committees; in 2022, he and his wife were named to the College's Wall of Honor.

Meehan is survived by his wife of 62 years, Prudence; sons Andrew Meehan (Anne) and Douglas Meehan (Paula Dickerson); and a grandson.

1963 Kenneth D. Aldrich Jr., 84, of Whitehall, Pennsylvania, died on September 26, 2025.

Aldrich earned a B.A. in French from Trinity and then an M.Div. and S.T.M. from the Philadelphia Divinity School and a D.Min. from the Graduate Theological Foundation. After being ordained an Episcopal priest, he served several churches in New Jersey, including Trinity Episcopal Church in Red Bank for 25 years.

Aldrich is survived by his wife of 51 years, Sharon; children Kenneth D. Aldrich III, Matthew Aldrich (Rebecca), and Mary Sibley (Paul); and six grandchildren.

1963 John M. Alvord Sr., 85, of Granville, Massachusetts, died on November 23, 2025.

Alvord earned a B.S. in engineering from Trinity, where he served as manager of the varsity tennis team. He went on to work at his father's engineering firm, Alvord and Swift, and later as a home assessor.

Alvord is survived by sons John Alvord Jr. (Kathleen), Stephen Alvord, and Theodore Alvord (Edna) and seven grandchildren. He was predeceased by wife Marcia.

1963 William R. Talbot Jr., 83, of West Chester, Ohio, died on October 10, 2025.

Talbot earned a B.A. in English from Trinity, where he was a member of Cerberus and served as secretary of the Glee Club. He first worked at Germantown Academy, where he taught and later served as director of alumni and development. Talbot then moved into development for hospitals before co-founding a consulting firm.

Talbot is survived by children Rick (Debbie) and Chip, four grandchildren, and a great-grandson. He was predeceased by his wife of 60 years, Elizabeth "Frith."

1964 Fred R. Miller, 83, of Lomita, California, died on January 12, 2026.

Miller earned a B.A. in economics from Trinity, where he was a member of the Brownell Club and the French Club and took part in ROTC. He served in the U.S. Air Force and then worked as a computer programmer until his 1995 retirement.

Miller is survived by his wife of 58 years, Carolyn; sons Brian (Michelle) and Eric (Jennifer); and three grandchildren.

1966 Raymond P. Boulanger, 81, of Winchester, Massachusetts, died on November 3, 2025.

Boulanger graduated Phi Beta Kappa with a B.A. in economics from Trinity, where he was a member of Delta Phi, the baseball team, and the staff of The Trinity Tripod and served as an editor of the Ivy. He went on to earn an M.A. in economics from the University of Michigan. After earning a law degree from Yale University, which he attended through Army ROTC, he had a 43-year legal career at Goodwin Procter.

Boulanger is survived by children Cort Boulanger and Brittany Boulanger (Todd O'Brien), four grandchildren, and siblings Edward Boulanger and Avis Ashton. He was predeceased by wife Maureen and a granddaughter.

In Memory

1966 Paul Rizauckas, 81, of New Britain, Connecticut, died on September 13, 2025.

Rizauckas earned a B.S. in mathematics before working as a project analyst for United Technologies Corporation.

Rizauckas is survived by many cousins.

1967 Michael P. Hickey, 80, of East Falmouth, Massachusetts, died on February 13, 2026.

Hickey earned a B.A. in history from Trinity, where he was a member of Sigma Nu and the basketball and baseball teams, serving as co-captain of the latter during his senior year. Following his service in the U.S. Air Force, he worked as an operations manager for Travelers Insurance while serving in the Rhode Island Air National Guard (RI ANG). After being promoted to brigadier general, he became commander of RI ANG.

Hickey is survived by his wife of 30 years, Elizabeth; children Michael B. Hickey (Lenka), Anne Fern, Brian Hickey (Liza), and Kevin Hickey (Rebecca); stepchildren Rachel Kerrigan (Ryan) and Christopher Cummings (Angel); 16 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and brother Peter Hickey (Gerry). He was predeceased by sister Kathleen Arecchi and the mother of his children, Gale.

1967 Floyd W. Putney, 80, of Johns Island, South Carolina, died on November 16, 2025.

Putney earned a B.A. in history from Trinity, where he was a member of Alpha Chi Rho and the crew team. He served in the U.S. Army in Korea before earning an M.D. from the Medical University of South Carolina. Putney went on to a career in obstetrics and gynecology.

Putney is survived by his wife of nearly 53 years, Jan; children Meredith Anderson (Estelle), Lauren Barzee (Craig), and Floyd "John" Putney (Lee); three grandchildren; sister Elizabeth Putney; and step-brothers Todd Putney (Mary-Stewart) and Stephen. He was predeceased by brother John "Randy" Putney.

1967 William G. Roth, 80, of Huntley, Illinois, died on December 26, 2025.

Roth earned a B.A. in history from Trinity, where he was a member of Alpha Chi Rho and the swimming team. He went on to earn an M.A. from the University of Notre Dame before returning to his high school alma mater, Culver Academies, and serving for five decades as a master instructor, coach, counselor, mentor, and faculty leader.

Roth is survived by his wife of nearly 60 years, Susan; children Andrew (Tiffany), Timothy (Staci), and Melissa '99; and five grandchildren.

1968 Elric J. Endersby, 79, of Ewing, New Jersey, died on October 13, 2025.

Endersby earned a B.A. in fine arts, with a focus on art history and architecture. He also was a member of Delta Psi and the Jesters. Endersby studied preservation architecture at the Cooperstown Graduate Program at SUNY Oneonta and later founded The Princeton Recollector, an award-winning oral history journal, and the New Jersey Barn Company, which restored barns and homes. He also authored or co-authored two books on barns.

Endersby is survived by sister Deborah Gwazda '71 (Edward).

1968 Glen H. Insley, 79, of Georgetown, South Carolina, died on January 26, 2026.

Insley earned a B.A. in government from Trinity, where he was a member of Alpha Chi Rho, the Senate, and the staff of The Trinity Tripod. His career in financial services included time with Merrill Lynch, Shawmut Bank, and First Union, which later became Wachovia.

Insley is survived by his wife of 55 years, Libby; son Richard (Meegan); daughter-in-law Liz; five grandchildren; and sister Anne McCausland (Michael). He was predeceased by son Marshall.

1968 Richard S.W. Shepard, 79, of McLean, Virginia, died on October 27, 2025.

Shepard earned a B.A. in history from Trinity, where he served as corresponding secretary of Delta Phi and was a member of the Glee Club and Pipes and Drums. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps before his more-than-four-decade career with the CIA.

Shepard is survived by his wife of 39 years, Celia; children David Shepard (Eleanor) and Margaret Irons (Ned); four grandchildren; a step-grandchild; and siblings Katherine Graham (Arthur), Peter Shepard (Jane), and Nathaniel Shepard.

1969 Richard S. Grinnell, 78, of Wesley Chapel, Florida, died on January 20, 2026.

Grinnell earned a B.A. in studio arts from Trinity, where he was a member of Phi Kappa Psi and the Trinity Pipes. After retiring from his career with the U.S. Air Force with the rank of lieutenant colonel, he earned a master's degree in architecture and later taught architecture, sustainability, and solar design at St. Petersburg College.

Grinnell is survived by his wife of 35 years, Lynn; first wife Margo Winslow and their children Matthew, Tracy, and Ann; and siblings Elizabeth "Betsy" and Eytan (Esther). He was predeceased by daughter Robin.

1971 Matthew T. Birmingham III, 77, of West Windsor, Vermont, died on January 15, 2026.

Birmingham earned a B.A. in history from Trinity, where he was a member of Alpha Delta Phi, played ice hockey, and served as captain of the lacrosse team. He went on to earn a J.D. from Boston College and to a law career that culminated with his firm, Birmingham Law. Birmingham also taught criminal justice at the College of St. Joseph in Rutland.

Birmingham is survived by his wife of 50 years, Lynne; children Matthew '98 (Melissa), Tim (Kati), and Sarah Wannop '04 (Robert); eight grandchildren; and siblings James Birmingham '82 (Lisa '82) and Bonnie Cretti (Clark). He was predeceased by brother Peter.

1971 Robert A. Caputo, 76, of Kennett Square, Pennsylvania, died on December 18, 2025.

Caputo earned a B.S. from Trinity, where he was a member of Delta Psi and the Jesters and played soccer. He was a photographer, filmmaker, and author whose books included Journey Up the Nile and multiple National Geographic field guides.

Caputo is survived by wife Amy and sons Nicholas and Matthew.

1974 Maurice R. Landry, 72, of Bangor, Maine, died on August 14, 2025.

IN MEMORY GUIDELINES

We will not announce the death of a community member without first confirming with a previously published obituary or direct notification from a relative. Also, those who passed away more than two years prior to the date of publication will be listed in Death Notices, along with those for whom we do not have enough information for a longer obituary.

Landry earned a B.A. in history from Trinity and later an M.Phil. from Harvard University and an M.Ed. from the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

Landry's survivors include wife Judy.

1975 William J. Ogonowski, 72, of Terryville, Connecticut, died on November 19, 2025.

Ogonowski graduated Phi Beta Kappa with a B.A. in intercultural studies. He went on to earn a graduate degree from Southern Illinois University. Ogonowski worked for the American Red Cross prior to retiring.

Ogonowski is survived by sister Nancy Micloskey (David).

1976 David L. Henderson, 71, of Harvard, Massachusetts, died on October 12, 2025.

Henderson earned a B.A. in psychology from Trinity, where he was a member of Delta Psi. He went on to a career in professional audio and visual equipment sales, founding the D.L. Henderson Company.

Henderson is survived by his wife of 44 years, Mary Morazzi-Henderson; children Kyle Henderson and Kelsey Henderson (Justine); and brothers Andy Henderson and Scott Henderson.

1983 Anthony Granitto, 63, of East Hampton, New York, died on May 30, 2025.

Granitto earned a B.A. in economics from Trinity, where he was a member of the Photography Club. He worked for many years for Hamptons Mortgage Corporation and then PAR East Mortgage Company.

Granitto is survived by his wife of 34 years, Laurie; son Paul Granitto; stepdaughters Jennifer and Jacqueline Wood; four grandchildren; and brother Joseph.

1985 Jeffrey L. Handelman, 62, of Brewster, New York, died on January 8, 2026.

Handelman earned a B.A. in mathematics from Trinity, where he played intramural sports and worked on the staff of The Trinity Tripod. His professional life included time in investment advising with Meyer Handelman Co.

Handelman is survived by siblings Cary Handelman '82 and Leslie Tannenbaum.

CURRENT STUDENT

2029 Nicholas T. "Nicky" Green, 18, of Towson, Maryland, died on January 21, 2026.

Green, a first-year student, came to Trinity as a graduate of The Park School of Baltimore, where he worked on the technical theater crew during school plays. He also participated in the Boy Scouts.

Green is survived by his parents, Kristie McCormick and Thomas Green; brother Kevin Green; grandmothers Marita Green and Martha McCormick; and 23 cousins. He was predeceased by grandfathers William Green and Kevin McCormick.

IDP

2005 Joan Guilmette, 77, of Portland, Connecticut, died on January 22, 2026.

After founding Connecticut Metal and Tool Supply, Guilmette earned a B.A. in history from Trinity and then an M.A. from Wesleyan University.

Guilmette is survived by her husband of nearly six decades, Randall; children Lucian Guilmette (Kristine Hopp), Dolores Bates (Alexander), and John Guilmette (Meghan); seven grandchildren; and siblings James Vacca (Joyce) and Suzanne Burgess (Jeffrey).

MASTER'S

1977 Elizabeth R. Jarok, 77, of Chelmsford, Massachusetts, died on January 9, 2026.

Jarok earned a B.A. from Grove City College before earning an M.A. in English from Trinity. She began her career as a middle school English teacher and later taught at Middlesex Community College.

Jarok is survived by sons Geoff Jarok (Samantha) and Jonathan Jarok, two grandchildren, sister Robin Henry, and friend Scott Higginbotham. She was predeceased by husband John Jarok.

1989 Donna D. Mozdzierz, 72, of Manchester, Connecticut, died on February 12, 2026.

Mozdzierz earned a B.A. in English from the University of Massachusetts Amherst before earning an M.A. in English from Trinity. She worked for Aetna for 29 years, retiring in 2008.

Mozdzierz is survived by her husband of 30 years, Walter; stepdaughters Brenda Burge (Joseph) and Karen Wydo (Walter); two step-grandchildren; one step-great-grandchild; and sister Marijane Diodati.

1994 Mary E. Lyons, 80, of Farmington, Connecticut, died on January 7, 2026.

Lyons earned a B.S. and an M.S. from Central Connecticut State University and later an M.A. in English from Trinity. Her career in education included teaching and coaching basketball at Rocky Hill High School and teaching in the Hartford Public Schools and at Manchester Community College.

Lyons is survived by brother Jack Lyons (Charlotte) and friend Anne Johnson. She was predeceased by siblings Sally Anne Sheremeta and Daniel Lyons.

FORMER FACULTY

Ranbir Vohra, 97, of Gurgaon, India, Charles A. Dana Professor of Political Science, Emeritus, died on November 7, 2025.

Vohra earned a B.A. with honors from Government College, Panjab University, and then worked as a program executive for All India Radio, run by the country's Ministry of Information and Broadcasting.

While there, he earned a diploma in Chinese from Peking University. In 1964, he came to the United States and Harvard University, where he went on to earn an M.A. in regional studies and a Ph.D. in history and Far Eastern languages. With experience teaching at the University of Calgary and at Harvard, Vohra joined the Trinity faculty in 1973 as associate professor and chair of the Department of Political Science, the latter a position he held from 1973 to 1985 and again from 1993 to 1996. In 1975, a year after being tenured, he was appointed Charles A. Dana Professor of Political Science. Vohra taught courses on the history and politics of China, Japan, and India. He also authored numerous books, including Lao She and the Chinese Revolution (Harvard University Press, 1974), China's Path to Modernization (Prentice-Hall, 1987; third edition, 2000), and The Making of India (M.E. Sharpe, 1997; third edition, 2013). Most recently, he was working on his autobiography. Vohra also taught in the Elderhostel program, now known as Road Scholar. After his 1997 retirement, he was granted emeritus status and served as an instructor in Trinity's Academy of Lifelong Learning.

Vohra is survived by his spouse of 71 years, Meena; daughter Carin Phelan '85 (Paul); and a grandson.

DEATH NOTICES

1944 Donald C. Paine
1946 Albert J. Ahern Jr.
1950 Richard W. Haselton
1950 Eugene W. Jakos
1950 Edgar W. Matthews
1952 David E. Fitzgerald
1952 Thomas L. Peterson
1961 Neil R. Newberg
1965 David R. Sotter
1967 Philip J. Mayer
1972 John M. Hancock
1976 Curtis T. Dwyer