

2020-2021 Health Insurance Grant Application

Financial Aid Office

Trinity College requires that all students be covered by health insurance. To meet this requirement, you can enroll in the Trinity Student Health Insurance Plan [SHIP] or maintain home insurance coverage. If you do not have access to health insurance other than the Trinity SHIP and you receive financial aid, you may request a grant to cover the cost of the Trinity SHIP. A limited amount of grant funding is available for students with extremely high need.

To apply for grant consideration, complete and submit this application to by August 14, 2020. Applications received after August 14th will only be approved based on funding availability.

US CITIZENS and ELIGIBLE NON-CITIZENS:

If you are already covered by a family plan or another policy that provides coverage in the Hartford, CT area, you must maintain home insurance coverage or voluntarily purchase the Trinity SHIP without grant assistance. Trinity grants are not available to provide double insurance coverage in conjunction with a commercial plan with a high deductible or coinsurance amounts.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS:

International students who will attend Trinity College on a F1/J1 VISA MUST enroll in the Trinity SHIP. International students CANNOT waive/decline coverage in the Trinity SHIP.
