

AUDITION NOTICE

Instrumental Ensemble

The Trinity College Instrumental Ensembles Program is a half-credit course that supports the study and performance of music from five centuries of chamber music repertoire. The program provides students with an opportunity to receive training in ensemble playing skills.

Auditions are required.

Please contact Nancy Curran, Coordinator of the Instrumental Ensemble Program (MUSC 115) to reserve a time.

Audition should consist of a short prepared piece and a scale of the student's choice.

To schedule your audition or if you have any questions please email:
