

The Center for Caribbean Studies at Trinity College Presents

A community forum:

Health in Caribbean Hartford

Saturday
September 15, 2018

Mather Hall, 2nd Floor / Washington Room
Trinity College, 300 Summit St, Hartford CT 06106

Opening Remarks 9:15–9:30 a.m.

Welcome | Dario Euraque, Co-director, Center for Caribbean Studies

Inaugural Comments | Joanne Berger-Sweeney, President, Trinity College

Introduction of Keynote Speakers | James Trostle, Anthropology Department

Morning Keynote Speakers 9:30–12:00 p.m.

9:30 - 9:55 | The Colonial Origins of Caribbean Public Health: Disease Control Efforts in Cuba and Puerto Rico, 1898-1920s | Mariola Espinosa

10:00 - 10:25 | Rethinking Maria: On Hurricane History and Government Response | Juan Ángel Giusti Cordero

10:25 - 10:40 | Break

10:45 - 11:10 The Other Caribbean: Decolonization and Autonomous Organizing for Health in Puerto Rico Post-Maria | Adriana Garriga-Lopez

11:15 - 11:40 | Response to Speakers | Blanca Ortiz Torres

Lunch | 11:45 - 12:30

Afternoon Keynote Speakers 1:00–2:00 p.m

The Care of Migrant Caribbean and Central American Populations in Connecticut, 1997-2018 | Bruce Gould

The Use of Trauma-Informed Services with Puerto Rican and Other Caribbean Communities | Rocio Chang

Breakout Discussions 2:00–4:30 p.m

Women's Health | Angelique Croasdale - Mills
Political Action & Advocacy | Larry Deutsch & Wildaliz Bermudez

Mental Health | Jose Santos, M.D.
Primary Care | Kenia Mansilla-Rivera, M.D.
Acculturation and Substance Abuse Patterns Among College Students in CT | Yacihuica Moni & Omar Rivera

Tables and Outreach 9:30 a.m.–4:30 p.m

Local community health and cultural organizations including: Advocacy for Children with Disabilities (AFCAMP) | Capitol Region Mental Health Center | Chispa, Latino Activism on the Environment in Connecticut | Connecticut League of Conservation Voters (CTLCV) | Connecticut United Way 211 | CT Students for a Dream | Hartford GYN Center, Family Planning Clinic | Malta House of Care, Mobile Medical Clinic | NARAL Pro-Choice Connecticut

Forum co-sponsored by Trinity College Dean of Faculty's Office, the Department of History and the Department of Anthropology

Trinity College
HARTFORD • CONNECTICUT